had a leg broken two weeks ago in a collision with a bicycle, is doing finely.

C. S. Noyes remembered some of his friends the first of the week, in the shape of ripe tomatoes, some of his own raising.

Rev. D. E. Croft, wife and daughter, of Groton, N. Y., are here on a will hold a rally in the town hall at

Rev. E. G. French of Johnson, chairman of executive committee of Lamoille county Sunday-School association was in town last Thursday making arrangements for a proposed combined convention and picnic, to be held the latter part of this month.

The Universalist convention, held here last year, will be held this year at Barre August 25, 26, 27 and 28.
Rev. I. P. Booth is down for a leading part, and I. N. LeBaron is a member of the executive committee.
Probably a good many from here will attend.

It is rumored, and commenced to be talked about, that the cracker combine are negotiating for the White factory in this town. Things have not progressed far enough yet to give any facts, because all are pretty close-mouthed, and naturally would be until the matter had been clinched.

W. M. Clark never finishes an undertaking of any importance until a crowd is on hand to inaugurate it in an appropriate manner, hence he waited till a circus came to town to finish up the outside of that addition to his barber shop, and as usual, bosses the job in person. Great is William in looking after the details of his building operations.

The foundation of the new Congregational church is progressing as satisfactorily as could be wished, under the direction of Contractor L. W.
Bachum. The rough masonry 4 1/2 feet high, is completed for the new part. This is to be surmounted by 2 1/2 feet of red stone foundation, which is to come from Burlington. The foundation under the old vestry is in place on the east side and nearly completed on the north side. It is expected that the whole foundation will be completed in about ten days.

E. B. Merriam, who was here a few days last week, is more of a hustler even than when he kept store here in Morrisville. For instance, besides his regular business he devotes just a little time to corn. He is a partner in a concern that owns 250,000 bushels, which would make up a train three and a half miles long. It is last year's crop, and to store the same it was necessary to build cribs, which required $4000. Mr. Merriam predicts a big crop this year, but he has laid in a stock against a rainy day.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Hattie Somers Rich and Mr. William Henry Perry, to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
Harvey Rich on Wednesday Aug. 12, at 3 o'clock p. m. The bride is too well known here to need introduction. The groom is the Principal of the Lowville, N. Y., academy.

Captain Kenfield informs us that the sum appropriated for maple bounties is sufficient to pay the same in full, but that the amount for cane sugar, $5,000,000, is not enough for full payment and that those sugar makers will have to take a percentage. The maple sugar parties are now being made.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the People's Academy, which begins the fall term September 2. In this connection we mention the fact that this institution has just issued a handsome catalogue, equal to anything ever sent out by any educational institution in the State. Of course it was got out by this office.
Send to Prof. Beebe for one.

The next re-union of the Lamoille County Veterans' Association will be held on the fair grounds August 19 and 20. The program, as outlined, will consist of music by the Morrisville band, speaking and a ball game, all the details of which are to be arranged by the three officers. An admission of 15 cents will be charged, but children and teams will be admitted free.

The Rossini Quartette of Boston, while on a short summer tour, are to give a concert here Aug. 19. Each member of the quartette is an artist of marked ability and they will give one of the most pleasing concerts ever given here. The Boston Herald says of them:—"The Rossini Quartette sang with fine success at the recent banquet of the Vermont association at the Vendome."

The check list, containing 807 names is now posted in three places in town—at the post office in Morrisville, at the post office at the Corners and at the Town Clerk's office. It is the duty of every voter to see that his name is thereon. If on examination you find your name is not on it, it is your duty to report the fact to the Town Clerk. Correction in the list will be made at his office.

C. J. Moore, who lives in the western part of this town, brought in two kinds of apples Tuesday—one sample of last year's growth, and the other one this year's product. The year old kind was quite firm and hard, though kept exposed to the open air in his cellar, he said, and had not been subjected to any preservative treatment whatever. It is of the Mann variety, and he claims for it the best keeping qualities of any apple he can get hold of.

Congressman Powers, who is under orders of the State Committee for speeches throughout this month, finds that he cannot give direct answer to calls from this county. He suggests that applications for him be sent to Olin Merrill, Enosburg Falls, chairman of the State Committee, who will, as far as possible, fix dates for him in Lamoille county.
Just to show how the Judge's time is taken up, we give here his appointments for the next few days. Aug. 6 at White River Junction, Aug. 7 at Olcott, Aug. 8 at Morrisville, Aug.
11 at No. Hero, Aug. 13 at Castel-ton, Aug. 14 at Northfield.

The Cong'l Society held a well attended service at the town hall Sunday evening. After a duet by Mrs.
G. M. Powers and F. G. Fleetwood, Rev. Mr. Kellogg introduced Mr. E.
B. Merriam of Topeka, Kas. Mr.
Merriam spoke interestingly upon the people and churches in Morrisville, when he resided here, and upon church activities in the west. Mr.
Chas. S. Gleed gave a comprehensive and entertaining account of the difference in religious teaching and conduct between the churches of twenty-five years ago and those of to-day. He urged that the spirit of Christ be taught and followed; that our lives be moulded by His life; that toleration and active Christian help be granted to all religious agencies seeking to elevate and uplift the human family. The services of the evening closed with the singing of the very appropriate hymn, "God Be With You, 'Till We Meet Again."

remembered Tuesday by Mr. Sanders, the local weather observer, in the shape of red Astrakan apples from his orchard.

ers are sending out bills to the water mer residents of Cambridge, were the guests of Judge and Mrs. Powers on Monday, returning to Cambridge Tuesday. Mr. Whitcomb is now located at Battle Creek, Mich.

Baptismal service will be held in the Universalist church next Sunday morning. Music, a discourse appropriate to the occasion, and the consecration of several children will be special
